Please inform us of any allergies, intolerances or dietary requirements when sending us your pre-order, including sensitivities to GM oils which can also mean cooking oil made from genetically modified crops such as soybean, rapeseed/canola & corn oil. Whilst every care is taken in the preparation of our food, dishes are prepared in kitchens where allergens are present and we cannot guarantee any item is completely allergen free therefore we do not specifically highlight which dishes are free from certain allergens. We do however carry gluten free bread alternatives and many dishes are adaptable to cater for most dietary needs including gluten free, vegetarian/vegan options. When booking this bespoke Christmas Set Menu, you will be sent a copy of our Christmas

Menu Terms & Conditions with detailed information about deposits, cancellations and our no show policy. Please note that a 10% discretionary service charge is added onto all Christmas menu bookings and to allow for this when calculating the price per person.

Any further information required please get in touch and we will be happy to assist you.
